

Randall Faber, Guest Artist

As pianist and educator, Randall Faber has appeared as special guest at universities throughout North America and Asia, including the Beijing Central Conservatory, the Shanghai Conservatory and the Royal Conservatory of Canada. He has been Convention Artist for the Music Teachers National Association Conference and master teacher for the World Conference on Piano Pedagogy, National Conference on Keyboard Pedagogy, the Australasian Piano Pedagogy Conference and the USA National Piano Teachers Institute.

Randall and his wife Nancy are well known as authors of the best-selling Piano Adventures® teaching method.

Gary Ingle, Guest Speaker

Gary L. Ingle is Executive Director and CEO of Music Teachers National Association (MTNA), the oldest music teacher association in the United States.

Widely regarded for his advocacy efforts for music study in all its settings, Dr. Ingle has been interviewed on numerous TV and Talk Radio programs across the United States. He was featured on the award winning television program the Profile Series. Dr. Ingle's message is that music study with a qualified music teacher is for everyone. His segment on Sky Radio encouraged adults to take music lessons for musical, social, and health reasons.
